LIGHT FLASHES.

What the Reporters Learn on Their Tour Through the City.

—Compositor wanted at the Light office. Must have Union card.

—Grand opening at Stern's diamond emporium on Monday next.

—Passengers from Saltillo this morning report a few inches of snow in that city.

—Dr. Graves, Jr., found a nice shawl which is lying in his office at Kalteyer's drug store.

—Judge Anton Adam united in marriage this morning Pedro Terasas to Miss Luz Samson.

—Mr. Jacob Richards, the well known stockman, while riding a horse this morning, was thrown down, the horse falling on him and breaking his leg.

—It seems a well established fact now that the Ore Transfer company will pay advance freight bills and cut rates in the prices of merchandise transportation.

—Only one building permit was issued this morning, namely, of Mrs. A. Kennedy, for a two-story lumber dwelling, 2024, east side San Pedro avenue, $725.

—Judging from rumors on the streets, the crop of gentlemen seeking Almerian honors will be unusually large. The crop will ripen about the close of this week.

—A Mexican was taken down with the small-pox yesterday at his home across the San Pedro. A yellow flag over the door signals the danger of the contagion. Dr. Bruennel is in attendance on the sick man.

—The role of a croaker is not a pleasant one, but croakers-to-day are nevertheless multitudinous. They justly complain that if property owners are compelled at their own expense to lay down sidewalks, why should not the Council supplement the good work by making raised street crossings.

—There was no grand, terrifying spectacle of a conflagration last night as many expected who hurried from Turner hall as the bell tolled, but it afforded them an opportunity nevertheless to cool their copper at the bar.

A chimney ablaze on Acquia street is a thin provocation for leaving one's lady and breaking for the nearest bar.

Papers Found.

A gentleman found some discharge and enrollment papers belonging to a soldier named Alcide Thibaut. He handed them over to Officer Brown, who, in turn, gave them to the Marshal.

Real Estate Transfers.

Julius Meiss to Roland Guering, 24 acres, consisting of lots 169 and 173, from original subdivision of the old city tract $2400.

Norton Reed to Julius Meiss, 24 acres of land, consisting of lots 169 and 173 from original subdivision of old city tract $2400.

Disturbing the Peace.

This morning Mr. Frank Donaldson appeared before the Recorder on a charge of disturbing the peace. Evidence was given as to his coming up to the wife's house and breaking in the door, though he was ordered to go away. He also entered her room after she had run from the house and lay on her bed. The Recorder fined him $25.

Recorder's Court.

F. Donaldson, disturbing the peace, $25; Mrs. Eger, violating fire ordinance, $5; L. Pinner, drunk, $5; J. S. Harris, disorderly, $5; H. Brady, drunk, $5; Carrion, Sanchez, Maso, drunk, $5 each; Henderson, carrying pistol, continued; Foster, vagrancy, $10 or 30 days; Henderson, quarreling and fighting, $5; Diaz, drunk, $5; Clay, resisting an officer, dismissed.

Military Orders.

Assistant Surgeon P. Middleton, United States Army, will take charge of the office of the Medical Director of the department during the temporary absence of that officer.

Recruit William April, enlisted by the recruiting officer at San Antonio, Texas, is assigned to troop C, Eighth cavalry.

Recruit Alfred Canada, enlisted by the recruiting officer at San Antonio, Texas, is assigned to troop M, Tenth cavalry.

Four Westmoreland.

"You can't leave your horse untied like this," said Officer Westmoreland to Clay, a colored man. "I must arrest you and take you to jail." A struggle ensued, in which Westmoreland got rather the worst of it, but Olsen came to the rescue and Clay gave in. In the evidence this morning it appears Westmoreland drew his club on Clay, when the latter threw the officer and took his club away. The case was dismissed.

Caught in the Act.

Yesterday evening while Mrs. Feltle and family, together with some guests, were sitting around the fire a Mexican woman crept unobserved into the yard, and filling her arms with some fire wood, was about to bid good-bye with her booty when two of the guests, the Messrs. Vanis and Miralis Hobles, saw her through the window and gave the alarm. The old woman was relieved of the wood and allowed to proceed on her way.

District Court.

The jury yesterday afternoon, in the case of G. Helbert and wife against the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio railway, rendered a verdict of $300 for plaintiffs, $5000 having been paid for.

Cabriel L. M. Walshall was appointed this morning a Special Judge to try the case of Vance vs. C. Upson, executor of the estate of James Vance.

Prohaska & Sandherr vs. S. Sulon, verdict for plaintiffs.

Almira T. Reed vs. T. J. Safford & Son, suit on promissory note; judgment by default.

J. Phillips vs. International and Great Northern railroad, seeking damages for delay of goods shipped; appeal from Justice's court. On trial.

PERSONAL.

Stones Glimmed in the Hotel Corridors and From Various Other Sources.

Mr. Meizer is seriously indisposed and confined to his bed.

Mr. C. L. Probandi has the thanks of the Light for late English papers.

Alonso Millet came in from his ranch in Presidio county this morning.

Meers, Frank Brown and H. Fells are going for a week's shooting to San Jeronimo.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds is on his way to Kentucky to bring back with him his family to the city.

Arrivals at the St. Leonard Hotel: Dan Carter, Austin; Stanley M. Jones, Laredo; W. W. Venger, J. B. Ellsworth, W. W. Fryer, A. M. Eichholtz, J. H. Meidenhall, Harrisburg, Pa.; Joseph Fant, R. F. Schmidt, New Braunfels; S. A. Jones, Del Rio; A. B. Carr, Com. Brock, C. Connelley, San Marcos; S. H. Jones, Texas.

A COLORED HORSE THIEF.

He Escapes from Officer Brown on a Horse Stolen From Some White Men.

This morning about 3 o'clock Officer Brown saw a colored man holding a fine looking horse and conversing with some white men. "Go and get him," said the colored man, using a fearful oath. Three white men then left, going in the direction of the police office, when the colored man jumped on the horse. Brown thinking mischief was brewing, crept quietly up to the horse and rider, but hardly had he touched the bridle, when the man saw him, and putting spurs to his horse shot off like an arrow. Stop! stop! cried Brown, drawing his pistol and pursuing him, but to no purpose. A horse can beat a man any day, and Brown was distanced. On returning to the spot from where the man had first started, he found the white men, and from them learned the colored man's name to be Henry, that he had been working for a man named Bennett near Laveria and was a horse thief.

Marriage License.

The County Clerk this morning passed two sets of graduates from single blessedness, giving the following parties a license: Pedro Terasas to Miss Luz Samson, and J. D. Eldridge to Miss Mary Kerr.

Good Neighbors.

Last night the chimney of Mrs. Eger caught on fire, frightening the ladies of the house and causing great alarm. The accident might have terminated worse had it not been for the hard work, heavy and persevering efforts of Mrs. Eger's neighbors, to whom she wishes to express her gratitude and best thanks.

The Bull's Eye.

The following is the score of last Sunday afternoon's shooting by the gun club: S. Veith, 21; A. Thiele, 21; J. Huck, 9; A. Richter, 15. To decide the tie A. Thiele stood 3, and S. Veith 4.

In this connection these gentlemen wish it to be understood that a published statement in some of the other papers is erroneous. They were not ordered away from the grounds at the springs. They were merely told by Mrs. Knapp that her husband was ill and very nervous, and as soon as this was known, like the gentlemen they are, they promptly shouldered arms and left the grounds, not desiring to molest or annoy the invalid.

A Council of Stock Men.

To-morrow night a meeting of the stock dealers, business men and citizens generally will be held at Krieh's hall. Its object is to memorialize the Legislature and devise some means to prevent fence cutting depredations. Undoubtedly, business is suffering here owing to a fear that the worst is to come yet perhaps, and until law and order reign supreme there must necessarily be a benediction of purpose and instability in the market among all classes of business men. This meeting will, of course, select gentlemen to represent its objects in Austin at the called session of the Legislature. Besides, the State Association of Stock Men will convene at the capital on the second Tuesday in January, and from their deliberations there must, of course, be evolved a plan for the redress of their grievances, while at the same time doing equity to all.

The Beggar Student.

The Beggar Student, presented by the Charles E. Ford Opera company, was well attended last evening at Turner hall, considering the inclemency of the weather. Many reserved seats having the cards of the owners were unoccupied on account of the cold rain and hence the house was not a fair criterion of the box receipts. Miss Alice May in the leading role of the Beggar Student is both a charming singer and actress, with a rich volume of trained voice and was frequently encored. Mr. Chapman, as General Ollendorf, has a fine conception of stage extravaganzas, consequently his was the role to make the audience laugh. There are some 30 or more performers, their costumes and wardrobe are elegant and appropriate and all the choruses were rendered singularly well. To-night the same painstaking company will appear in Rip Van Winkle.

For Alderman, Fourth Ward.

We are authorized to announce Mr. Gustave Gross as a candidate for Alderman in the Fourth ward at the ensuing election in January next.
